COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
DECEMBER 13, 2021

President Karen Caldwell called the meeting to order at 5 p.m. in the Greenbelt Electric Willie Room.

In attendance were Caldwell, Geney Gulley, Debbie Huntress, Bev Odom, Neal Odom, Cecilia Orozco, Shaylee Rose of Memphis, Lynn Smith, Clint Thomas, Cliff Waller, Billy Wilkerson and Margret Wood.

In the absence of Secretary Lisa Manuel, Caldwell presented the minutes of the Nov. 8, 2021, meeting. B. Odom made the motion to accept the minutes with a second from Wood. Motion carried. B. Odom volunteered to compose the minutes of the meeting.

Orozco gave the treasurer report. The chamber ended the year with a balance of $47,616.77. B. Odom made the motion to accept the financials as presented. Wilkerson seconded the motion. Motion carried.

In old business, concerning the Lighting of the Square recap, Waller stated the courthouse lawn has room for more decorations with a two-tier arrangement. City employees came quickly to fix the rotating star. Caldwell suggested starting earlier next year for the "magical night."

The Christmas on the Bricks Red Ticket Sales and Raffle Night is set for Sunday, Dec. 19 at 5 p.m. Wood reported that ticket sales are going well, and all tickets need to be turned in Thursday, Dec. 16. N. Odom will provide the live Facebook feed for the drawing. Lions Sweetheart Marlene Jantes will be contacted to draw the tickets.

Caldwell reported 28 trees have been decorated by businesses, individuals and non-profit groups for a fee of $20 each. She suggested the trees be dismantled by Jan. 8. Winners have been chosen by votes on Facebook. First place is Mammy's Daycare, second place is Carol Ann's Flowers & Gifts and third is the Women's Auxiliary of Wellington Volunteer Fire Department. Christmas tree trophies, hand-made by Katy Taylor and Gigi Waller, will be presented prior to the Christmas on the Bricks Red Ticket Drawing on Dec. 19.

In the Membership Drive update, Waller suggested providing Josh Ellifritz a complementary membership for his volunteer hours to assist with erecting the courthouse light display. Smith made the motion, seconded by B. Odom. Motion carried.

In new business, N. Odom gave a Website Report stating that the membership info is there and that he needs content for the events page.

Waller led discussion for possible future projects, which include a street cleanup "trash-off" in the spring, with Brian and Lori Moore as volunteers to help organize high school students for the event, a city-wide cleanup in May and a chamber banquet in late September or early October with Wood and Harris as chairmen. Discussion continued for constructing welcome to Wellington signs on the outskirts of town.

Caldwell presented 2021 chamber activities at a glance as follows: placed flags on seven patriotic holidays; conducted 12 monthly meetings and three ribbon-cutting ceremonies for new businesses; organized citywide garage sale; provided calendar of events on Facebook; hosted three-day Wild and Free on 83 events in August, Trunk or Treat in October and Lighting of the Square and Christmas on the Bricks Red Ticket Event with 58 prizes and over $13,000 in ticket sales in December; replaced lighted Christmas signs around courthouse; advertised for October History Symposium and courthouse sprinkler system fundraiser events (rifle raffle and BBQ); and presented sprinkler funds to Judge John James.

Chamber officers and volunteers will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 19 at Cowboy Coffee for a social event. Everyone should bring an appetizer and drink.

The next chamber meeting will be at 5 p.m. Monday, Jan. 10.
